THE MORNING REPORT

Air Quality Alert for the First Capital

The morning's news from Guthrie, Logan County and Edmond, gathered for Friday by The Morning Capital

By THE MORNING CAPITAL STAFF

GUTHRIE, Okla. — Good morning, First Capital, and happy Friday. Thursday morning, Guthrie police were sent to a report of an abandoned car with blood inside sitting in the roadway north of University and Academy, and Thursday evening officers gave a trespass warning in the 800 block of North Wentz. Edmond Inbox reports more growth is on the way for the Covell corridor as OnCue, 7 Brew and Honeyfield plans advance, and NonDoc fact-checks Oklahoma County candidates on jail funding and property taxes. The Edmond Public Schools board holds a special meeting at 2 p.m. Expect a cloudy, dry day, with an air quality alert until 3:15 p.m.
