THE MORNING REPORT

Rain and 67 Degrees in the First Capital

The morning's news from Guthrie, Logan County and Edmond, gathered for Friday by The Morning Capital

By THE MORNING CAPITAL STAFF

GUTHRIE, Okla. — Good morning, First Capital, and happy Friday. Thursday morning, crews were sent to a rollover in the I-35 median near southbound mile marker 157, and Thursday afternoon Cashion police were called to Cashion High School for a possible fire. The Logan County commissioners hold their regular meeting at 9 a.m.

Guthrie News Page reports Guthrie police are asking for help identifying an unconscious pedestrian struck by a vehicle, and that the Bluejays travel to Durant seeking a fourth straight win, while KFOR reports In-N-Out Burger is eyeing a possible move into Oklahoma. Keep an umbrella handy today, with rain and a chance of storms.

Guthrie's union depot to stretch a full block, two stories high

Construction of Guthrie's new union depot was to begin shortly, despite talk that it had been shelved until next year. The plans were redrawn for a two-story building 240 feet long, running the full distance between Harrison and Oklahoma avenues, with office rooms for railroad officials, since Guthrie was to become virtually a division point.

Marshall booms as farm land changes hands at a lively rate

The town of Marshall and the farm country around it were on a boom. The Farmers' State bank there telephoned that more than $50,000 had been deposited by farmers awaiting delivery of their deeds. Among the sales, the Moody Brothers sold the south half of section 15 for $8,000.
