Grey Volkswagen Reportedly Hits 120 MPH as It Flees Oklahoma County Deputy on Sooner Road

At one point, the driver swung into the opposite lane of traffic on Sooner to avoid another motorist, blew through the Simmons and Seward Road intersections and eventually made a U-turn at Lakewood. The driver then blew back through the Seward Road intersection and, as the vehicle approached Simpson, escaped after the Oklahoma County Sheriff's office decided to discontinue the pursuit.

Logan and Oklahoma County deputies proceeded to search a residence on Ana Lane at an address reportedly matching the vehicle's registration. Oklahoma County deputies took one person into custody and transported that person to the Oklahoma County jail.

South Logan County wasn't the only venue for overnight public safety activity.

In Guthrie, a resident in the 500 block of East Oklahoma met the new day with the discovery that their Jeep had gone missing.

The Jeep, an older red model, had last been seen during the night. Upon arriving at the residence, Guthrie police also discovered that another vehicle, a silver Ford F-250, had been "ransacked."

Woman sinks into mud hole at Guthrie post office crossing

A wild-eyed woman shrieked at noon on Thursday as she pulled up her dress and tried to comb the mud off her stockings, knees down, after sinking into a mud chasm in the middle of Oklahoma Avenue at the post office. Nothing was done to fix the crossing, and it was drily suggested that several men had gone under and been lost.
