THE MORNING REPORT

Sunny and 70 Degrees in the First Capital

The morning's news from Guthrie, Logan County and Edmond, gathered for Thursday by The Morning Capital

By The Morning Capital Staff

GUTHRIE, Okla. — Good morning, First Capital, and it looks to be a sunny, mild Thursday. Wednesday morning, deputies were called to a reported rockslide at Wildcat Curves, with ODOT crews on scene to clear the rocks, and Wednesday afternoon officers were sent to a reported non-injury collision involving a school bus at Noble and Elm. The City of Guthrie Parks & Urban Forestry Board meets tonight at 6:30 p.m. KOKH Fox 25 reports One Transit is considering its next step on a 39-mile commuter rail plan for central Oklahoma, and KOSU reports the state has identified a seventh deer with chronic wasting disease.

LOGAN COUNTY PUBLIC SAFETY RADIO ↗

These are over-the-air radio reports, not confirmed facts.

WED 6:34 A.M. Rockslide reported at Wildcat Curves; ODOT crews on scene to clear rocks ↗
Logan County Sheriff

A deputy reported a rockslide at Wildcat Curves, with a large pile of rock from the wall or cliff and one rock inches off the white line. The deputy stayed on scene with flashers on to slow traffic until ODOT crews arrived. The deputy later cleared and said ODOT was putting up signs and would probably block the road while clearing the rocks.

WED 8:07 A.M. Electrical crew partially blocks Drexel and Grant intersection ↗
Guthrie Police

An electrical crew partially blocked the intersection of Drexel and Grant shortly after 8 a.m., according to radio traffic. A Guthrie officer spoke with the crew, whose foreman planned to guide eastbound and westbound vehicles through safely, and the officer then reported clear.

WED 3:37 P.M. School bus in reported non-injury collision at Noble and Elm ↗
Guthrie Police

Police responded to a reported non-injury collision involving a yellow school bus and a black Chevy Impala at Noble and Elm. Police reported one citation and two warnings to the driver of one vehicle, took a collision report and returned to service.
